Who are the Friends of the Symphony?

The Friends are a dedicated group of community ambassadors who support and promote The Venice Symphony. They are community members who appreciate music and recognize the value of the Symphony.

The Friends are committed to advancing the mission and longevity of The Venice Symphony through dedicated advocacy, strategic fundraising, and meaningful volunteer engagement. They strive to ensure the Symphony continues to flourish for generations to come.

Their goals are to support the Symphony's artistic excellence and its musicians, invest in youth music education, and enrich the cultural life of the community.

Why be a Friend?

- Support the local arts in a meaningful, personal way
